

Schedule for Imagination Station September 2009 – June 2010

Parents are requested to remain with their child and participate until the end of the program. Under the direction of volunteer art educator Dr. Rosalind Perez, children discover Great Artists through various examples of artwork during this hour-long interactive program designed to educate, entertain and inspire.

It's FREE, but please RSVP! 281-335-7777 or tdavis@taaccl.org

Hours: 10:00 – 11:00 A.M.

The Elements and Principles of Design in Works of Art

September 12, 2009 Lines Lead the Eye

The use of lines to guide the eye to the main subject in a work of art.

October 10, 2009 Color My World Bright

Activities introducing color wheel: primary, secondary, intermediate colors

November 14, 2009 Space Is the Place in Which We Move

Movement experiences in closed spaces

December 12, 2009 Positive and Negative Shapes of the Holiday Seasons

Scenes of winter

January 9, 2010 Abstract / Realistic = Contrast

Clay Sculptures with Functional Forms

February 13, 2010 Repetition in Shapes

Printing with Ink Stamps

March 11, 2010 Symmetry

Create Designs with Shapes of Spring

April 10, 2010 Do You See What I See?

Viewing Art for Understanding

May 8, 2010 Textures to See or Feel

Create a Collage using Fabrics

June 12, 2010 Emphasis as Focus

Using light colored and dark colored chalk on sidewalks create environmental art

Imagination Station is made possible in part by a grant from The George & Mary Josephine Hamman Foundation.

